

Barry Peterson

208-859-3577 Mobile

spudcjp68@aol.com

Education

B.S. in Civil Engineering, Stanford University, 1966

M.S. in Civil Engineering, Stanford University, 1967

Experience

DRB Project Experience; 2013 – Current

- Obtained DRB certification from Dispute Resolution Board Foundation; May 2013
- Accepted for Idaho Transportation Board DRB Roster; June 2013
- Selected for three person DRB panel for bridge project in S.E. Idaho; September 2013
- Selected for three person DRB panel for road project in S.E. Idaho; February 2014
- Selected for one person DRB panel for road project in N. Idaho; May 2014
- Selected for three person DRB panel for road and bridge project in Boise, Idaho; November 2014
- Selected for three person DRB panel for sewage treatment plant in Twin Falls, Idaho; January 2015
- Selected for three person DRB panel for road project in North Idaho; April 2015

Harcon Incorporated; Spokane, WA; 1984 – 2012

Co-Owner and Head of Operations

- Project Lead on over 50 jobs in the Pacific Northwest which included bridges, treatment facilities, and juvenile fish facilities
- Jobs ranged in size from $1 million to $16 million and were primarily Public Works projects
- Harcon self-performed over 50% of the work on most jobs (concrete forming and pouring, pile driving, coffer dams, girder erection and mechanical piping)

Clearwater Constructors; Greeley, CO; 1982 - 1984

Construction Manager / Estimator

- Construction Manager on a fast-track building project involving two institutional buildings for a Junior College District. Functions included preparing bid proposal

Barry Peterson, P.2

packages for sub-contractors and suppliers, coordinating sub-contractors, scheduling, owner liaison and negotiations, and project administration

- Estimated heavy structure and building projects up to $11 million in size

Hensel Phelps; Jobs sites across in the U.S.; 1969 – 1982

Project Superintendent, Project Engineer

- Started as Project Engineer and advanced to Superintendent on various bridge and rapid transit projects. Jobs ranged in size from $3 million to $18 million. Worked in California, Georgia, Maryland, Arizona and Colorado

United States Public Health Service; Billings, MT; 1967 – 1969

Senior Assistant Sanitary Engineer

- Served two years in Montana supervising the installation of water and sewer lines and other sanitary facilities on the Crow Indian Reservation